

Dear Finalist

Please see below the requirements for the dress codes and score allocation for the Compulsory Competitions for Miss Global Princess South Africa 2023. The Compulsory Competitions are automatically part of your Finalist fee, and there is no additional cost to this. We look forward to meeting each and every finalist and empower you through this amazing journey.

COMPULSORY COMPETITIONS

INTERVIEW

Miss Global Princess South Africa is a prestigious and International Pageant, therefore, the Interview Competition is a great time to let the judges know just why they should pick you as the next Miss Global Princess South Africa Ambassador. Our judges are warm and friendly and are ready to have a one-on-one conversation with each contestant. At Miss Global Princess South Africa, there are no political, religious or text book questions. The judges just want to get to know who you are! Please see below information regarding Junior and Senior age group, outfit and timing requirements. Light make up is allowed for the interview for all age groups. Our interview will be a panel interview and remember to make your introduction as interesting and impactful as possible.
